

The BC Hotel Association Housekeeping Awards

The British Columbia Hotel Association (BCHA) along with the Board of Directors is pleased to announce the launch of the inaugural BC Hotel Association Housekeeping Awards. These awards will be presented at the BC Hospitality Summit Gala Dinner on April 9th 2019, in Kelowna, BC.

This is an amazing opportunity to celebrate the teams that look after your guests. The awards will be prized, and it will bring to the forefront the importance of a clean stay experience.

In identifying properties to receive the Housekeeping Awards, the BCHA considers brand GSI scoring system or a hotel proprietary GSI reports as the driving measure (for example: Trust You, Top Box Scores, etc.). These reports provide a comprehensive view of your guests' experience.

Our focus is on:

- Overall cleanliness

Properties must be a current member of BCHA and have been in operation for a minimum of 3 months to qualify.
